

UUMC WHY Statement:

We welcome and connect with others so that they feel loved and are inspired to love others, carrying on the work of Jesus Christ in the world.

We build relationships by intentionally including and embracing all people.

We strive to make the world more equitable for everyone.

We embrace ongoing learning as a vital and necessary part of growing in our faith.

We serve by helping where there is need.

